SEND THE WEEKLY UNION TO YOUR friends in the East.

WASHINGTON.

ORDERS FOR PACIFIC COAST REVENUE CUTTERS.

Cordial Greetings Between Ex-Confederates and Union Soldiers —Late Appointments.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

SOBRIETY AND INTEGRITY.

Two Requisites Required of All Indian Agents.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The Secretary of the Interior has directed that the following letter of instructions shall accompany each commission to an Indian Agent: "I am directed by the President to inform you that the office to which you are appointed is considered of far more than ordinary importance, both for the interests of the Government and for those of the Indians who will be brought under your charge and direction.

"Sobriety and integrity must mark the conduct of yourself and every one connected or associated directly and indirectly with the agency under your charge, and an improved condition in the affairs of the agency may be expected within a reasonable time, both as to the methods of doing business and the condition of the Indians.

"The education and proper training of the Indian children, and the agricultural and other industrial pursuits of adult Indians must receive constant and careful attention, to the end that they may be advanced in the ways of civilization and to a condition of self-support, and your commission will be held with the express understanding that you will use your utmost endeavors to further these objects and purposes."

DIVISION OF OFFICES.

Possible Political Condition of the Next Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—An element will come into Congress this winter and demand a division of offices in the new States. These new representatives will demand a share of the offices, and will make at least partial recognition of their States necessary. Whether new men are put into positions of Secretary and Sergeant-at-Arms or not, from twenty to forty places of a minor character will be demanded and secured. These will require a very general shake-up, and, of course, the displacement of the men now in office.

If Representatives from the new States should join the Southern Representatives or any faction in the organization of the House, they will cut a figure which will be felt. At any rate, they will come in for a dozen or more pretty good places, and Republicans from other sections may as well begin to figure to that end. The South is going to take the same kind of united action and go as a body, and whoever is elected Speaker will be pledged, unless a dark horse is selected, to recognize the new States and the South to the same extent that other States and sections having an equal number of Representatives are recognized.

INDIAN ALLOTMENTS

Being Made for Lands on the Different Agencies.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The Indian Office Agents engaged in making allotments of lands in severalty to Indians have left for their various fields of operation, and it is expected this year's operations will far exceed those of previous years in number of allotments made. It has been the purpose of the Department not to start in the allotments except where the Indians expressed a willingness to take lands in severalty, but has instructed all the Indian agents to work constantly with the Indians to establish a sentiment looking to breaking up of tribal relations. Thus far the allotments have been confined to Indians in Oregon, Dakota, Wisconsin, Montana and Indiana Territory, and to only single tribes in each State. This year agents will go to work on the Grande Ronde and Warm Springs Reservations in Oregon and will continue work on the other reservations in the States and Territories named. At present about fifteen thousand Indians in the United States hold patents to their lands and these are in the hands of the Indian Bureau. Some three thousand allotments were made which have not, however, been approved by the President.

REVENUE CUTTERS.

Bear and Rush to Alaskan Waters—The Walcott to Puget Sound.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The orders for the revenue cutters on the Pacific coast are finished, and will be started on their way at an early day. Those for the Bear have already gone. She is ordered to take as passengers Captain Borden and his two assistants for Point Barrow. She will also ship material and supplies for the new station of refuge at that point. She will cruise among the Seal islands, protecting the fisheries until she can get an opportunity to leave, when she will make for Point Barrow and land Borden, and aid in making preparations for his permanent stay.

The orders for the Rush will leave here to-morrow. She is assigned to her regular summer cruise along the coast and around St. Paul and St. George's islands.

The Corwin has been undergoing extensive repairs, needing new boilers and improvements in her hull. She will remain at San Francisco and along the lower coast until the return of the Rush, in September, when in the latter part of the season she will probably relieve that vessel.

The Walcott will make Port Townsend her headquarters and do regular revenue postal duty along the coast and in Puget Sound.

There are but four cutters on the coast beside the harbor boat at San Francisco.

BROTHERLY LOVE.

The Past is Forgotten—They Only Live For the Future.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—A delegation from the Philadelphia brigade of Senator Baker's command came here to-day, and met a delegation from Pickett's division. Both delegations at 1 o'clock were received by the President, and at 2:30 o'clock the Philadelphia visitors presented their former adversaries with a handsome silk flag. Colonel O'Reilly made the presentation and Colonel Blakely the acceptance. A fine reunion was then held.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Registers of Land Offices, Receivers of Public Moneys, Etc.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—Presidential appointments to-day were as follows: Beverly Tucker, of West Virginia, and Lewis Wallace, of Indiana, to be Special Envoys Plenipotentiary of the United States to Hayti; Hiram Smith, Jr., and Cameron Mobeen, First Deputy Commissioners of Pensions; Benjamin B. Thomas, of Santa Fe, N. M., Secretary of New Mexico; Robert Sanderson, of Baker City, Or., to be Commissioner in and for the District of Alaska, to reside at Unalaska; Hal. G. Cole, of Spokane Falls, W. T., agent for the Indians at Colville Agency, W. T.

Registers of Land Offices—Alexander Lynch, Florida, at Gainesville, Fla; Dorus M. Fox, Des Moines, at Des Moines, Ia.; John M. Hodge, Abilone, Kas., at Salina, Kas; John T. Patterson, Oregon City, Or.; Ratrick Raleigh, Little Rock, at Little Rock, Ark.; Herbert Brown, Arizona, at Tucson.

Receivers of Public Moneys—Volney J. Shipman, Florida, at Gainesville, Fla.; J. V. Scott, California, at Shasta, Cal.

Down the Potomac.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The President's trip was not a very lively affair. The yacht Restless dropped some forty miles down the Potomac, and put in at a small village called Leonardtown, where Sunday was spent. The party complained that they could not find along the river a church to attend on Sunday. The party strolled around Leonardtown, where Secretary Halford was accosted in the streets by a crank named General Bailey, who asked for an introduction to the President. The request was granted, and Bailey went on to state that he himself had been several times a candidate for President, but had been beaten each time. He informed the President that whenever he was tired he would relieve him. The President replied that he was thoroughly tired of it now, but could not give up to his accommodating friend for some months to come. The President returned earlier than expected, owing to the inclement weather.

General Drum's Successor.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The departure of Secretary Proctor from this city may have the effect of delaying the appointment of the successor to General Drum, who is to be retired to-morrow. It is rumored that the President, recognizing the pressure made by the friends of both the officers to be about equal, will select General Chauncey McKeever, but this is not credited in army circles here, although McKeever's fitness for the place is universally conceded. Gossip further says that instead of promoting a staff officer to the vacancy in the Majorship, which must result from the retirement of General Drum, the President insists that a line officer must have a place.

This is also discredited on the ground that it would confine the staff officers to a particular line, into which they had graduated, and would prevent promotion of officers from one staff to another.

Concerning the French Outrage.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—Relatives of the three Philadelphia ladies who were imprisoned at Nice failed to call at the State Department this afternoon to enter a protest, as expected, and the department is still without official notice of the affair, and the officials say they have received nothing from the American Minister to that country or the Consuls there on the subject. The ladies are friends of Secretary Tracy, and in speaking of the matter this afternoon he said he would see if the Government could not interfere, and he rejected the idea that the only redress was a civil action for damages.

Looking After Haytian Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—The Commission to Hayti has at last been definitely agreed upon. It was at first intended that it should consist of three members, but the refusal of Congressman Hitt, of Illinois, to serve reduces the number to two—General Lew Wallace, of Indiana, and Nathaniel Beverly Tucker, of Virginia. The present understanding is that they will sail for Port-au-Prince on Wednesday, the 29th inst., on the United States steamship Kearsage. Both Commissioners are well known and able men.

Fatally Stabbed.

WASHINGTON, May 27th.—During a scuffle among a gang of negroes in the eastern section of the city to-night Press Pinkney was fatally stabbed by James Henry. The victim had a cowhide and was using it on the others when the murderer attempted to stop him and received a stroke himself. He then drew a knife and cut Pinkney. The murderer was arrested shortly after the occurrence.

RIOTING IN ILLINOIS.

The Militia Called Out to Protect Life and Property.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—A special from Braidwood, Ill., the scene of the trouble of the striking coal-miners, says: In response to an appeal by the Sheriff of Will county for armed reinforcements, Governor Fifer has authorized the Illinois National Guard to protect property and persons endangered by the riot at Braidwood. Adjutant-General Vance has ordered a regiment of men to the Sheriff's aid.

About 500 strikers from the adjoining mining villages armed with guns and revolvers marched in a body on the J Shaft in this city at 3 o'clock this afternoon. About fifteen employes who were present were marched at the end of the strikers' guns to a safe distance north of the shaft and the turbulent mob then proceeded to fill the shaft up with pit cars and debris and to wreck things generally. After half an hour of this work they left, saying they would be back shortly and burn the shaft. Serious times are expected.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—Governor Fifer to-night ordered the entire Fourth Regiment to Braidwood to quell the riot. At eleven o'clock to-night the Chicago Zouaves, a company numbering fifty, left here for Braidwood. Company C left later, others will follow immediately.

GOOD SALES.

California Fruit Brings $2,550 a Car in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—Adams & Lewis, the auction company, sold to-day for the account of the Porter Brothers Company, agents of the California Fruit Union of Sacramento, two carloads of choice California fruits, consisting of seedlings and pringle apricots, peaches, cherries and cherry plums. There was a good lively demand and as the bulk of the fruit offered was in fine condition good prices were realized, the apricots selling at $3 65 to $3, peaches selling at $3 65 to $2 65, cherry plums selling at $2 15 to $1 90, cherries selling at $2 10 to 60 cents, according to their condition. The gross sales on the two cars were $5,100.

LATONIA PARK.

Kedar Khan, Louis D'or and Teuton Win the First Three Races.

LATONIA, May 27th.—The weather was cloudy and threatening to-day. The track was in fair condition. The first race, selling, purse $400, three-fourths of a mile, was won by Kedar Khan, with Charlotte J. second, and Los Webster third. Time, 1:18.

The second race, selling, purse $400, one mile, was won by Louis D'or, with May O. second, and Bon Air third. Time, 1:44½.

The third race, a handicap, purse $500, one and three-sixteenths miles, was won by Teuton, with Cassius second, and Guilford third. Time, 2:02½.

The fourth race, a sweepstakes, $600 added, one mile and seventy yards, was won by Bannerette, with Bravo second and Newcastle third. Time, 1:49.

POSTPONED ON ACCOUNT OF RAIN.

BROOKLYN, May 27th.—The races were postponed to-day on account of the rain. Entries and bets are off. If the track is in good condition to-morrow a good programme is assured.

ON THE WARPATH.

Indian Tribes Participate in a Fierce Fight in Montana.

ST. PAUL, May 27th.—A Winnipeg special to the Pioneer-Press says: Recently a number of Canadian Blood Indians visited Montana and stole a number of horses from the Gros Ventres. A fight took place near the Bear Paw Mountains, in which none of the Canadian Indians were killed, but two of the Gros Ventres were killed, and their scalps were brought to the Blood reservation in triumph.

The Canadian mounted police have been in pursuit of the thieves and murderers, their object being to recover the horses and return them to the Montana authorities. Two were captured on Saturday after an exciting chase, and three of the party are said to be at the South Piegan Agency in Montana. Other arrests are expected in a few days.

ROVING RUTHERFORD.

A New York Lady Who is Anxious to Locate Her Father.

NEW YORK, May 27th.—Peter Rutherford went from this city to California in 1849 to seek his fortune, leaving his wife and daughter. He never wrote to them, but they got news of him for several years through people named Reid who corresponded with friends of theirs. The Reids returned to this city in 1854. Nothing has been heard of Rutherford since, and news of him would be of service to his daughter, Mrs. Coleman, of 181 Mulberry street, for a cousin has died intestate in Scotland, leaving valuable property in Dundee, a share of which if her father be dead she would be entitled to as one of the next of kin. She not only cannot prove his death, but cannot prove his marriage to her mother, who died thirty years ago.

Stealing from Uncle Sam.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—A subordinate official to-day gives the details of one of the largest robberies of registered mail ever committed in Chicago. The vault of the Superintendent of one of the divisions had been entered and sixty-eight registered packages abstracted and no trace was left. The robbery was committed Sunday night and the amount taken is not yet known. The Postmaster says it was the work of an expert, but refuses to disclose his identity, as he thinks others are interested in the scheme.

EASTERN HAPPENINGS.

NEW YORK BANQUET TO EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

The Cronin Case Still a Mystery—Two Murderers Arrested—The Sioux Reservation.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

CHICAGO, May 27th.—The air to-day has been filled with rumors of important developments, arrests, etc., in connection with the Cronin case, but, with one or two exceptions, it was next to impossible to confirm or disprove them, owing to the extreme reticence of the police authorities. The police to-day denied that P. O'Sullivan, the ice man, whose name has been connected with the mysterious case from the first, had been arrested. It is asserted that he has not been seen at his home or place of business all day. Although some of the police officials to-day denied that McGeehan, the man who it is asserted came here from Philadelphia to aid in the "removal" of Dr. Cronin, is under arrest, there seems to be no doubt but that they have him in charge and that important evidence of some nature has been secured against him.

HARRY JORDAN'S ARREST.

This afternoon Harry Jordan, a man who came here from Philadelphia some time ago, and who is said to be an intimate friend of McGeehan's, was placed under arrest to be held as a witness. It is suspected that he knows something of McGeehan's movements that may prove of value. He is said to have belonged to the Clan-Na-Gael faction which was opposed to Cronin, and it is charged that he had frequently denounced the doctor in public. Detective Dan Coughlin is

GUARDED WITH THE UTMOST SECRECY,

No one being allowed to converse with him without an order from the Mayor or Superintendent of Police. His partner, Detective Whalen, who accompanied Coughlin in search for the man for whom Coughlin hired the horse on May 4th, has been suspended from duty pending an investigation.

The report that Tierney, one of the employes of Sullivan, the ice man, had disappeared is denied in an evening paper, which asserts that one of its reporters saw him today.

The man W. L. King who is under arrest does not answer the description of the man of that name who Woodruff says took part in the removal of the trunk on the night of Cronin's disappearance, and though he is something of a sporting man, the police do not believe he is the man wanted.

FUNDS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

Luke Dillon, who came here from Philadelphia to assist in ferreting out the murderers, says he has received a telegram saying the Clan-na Gael of Philadelphia have sent him a thousand dollars to forward the work.

Woodruff was to-day shown a picture of the man King now under arrest but he did not identify it. The opinion gains ground that Woodruff's first story was not a true one.

SATISFACTORY EXPLANATION.

T. Z. Hillyard, a South Park policeman, who bought a trunk at Revell's furniture store exactly similar to the one purchased by another man named Hillyard on the same day and sent to the rooms on Clark street, where the parties connected with Cronin's assassination are said to have lived before going to the cottage in Lake View, where the murder was committed, is still at liberty. There seems to be no reason for arresting him, as he has given a satisfactory explanation of the purchase and still has the trunk in his possession.

HIS DEATH ORDERED.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—The following is published here: "The police have been put in possession of some startling facts concerning Cronin's murder. It has been clearly shown by the dead man's friends that his removal was ordered by a committee representing the Clan-Na-Gael Society. Charges of traitorous conduct were preferred against him at a meeting of the Clan-Na-Gael. He was found guilty and his death ordered. It is asserted that W. J. Hynes, an attorney, Father Gleason, Captain U. P. O'Connor, John Devery and two others have been tried, convicted and their death sentence signed."

COUGHLIN CHARGED WITH MURDER.

CHICAGO, May 27th.—There was a sensational and rather unexpected development in the Cronin case at 10:45 to-night when detective Daniel Coughlin was formally arrested in the police station cell, where he has been detained on suspicion. An examination by a Justice was held immediately within the stone walls of the dungeon. A few moments later the magistrate ordered a commitment, and Coughlin was hurried out. On the way to the County Jail a warrant was sworn out by John Cronin, a brother of the dead doctor. Coughlin is charged directly with the murder. It is learned that Coughlin was today subjected to a severe course in the "sweat-box." He is said to be one of the brightest officers on the force, and was one of Captain Schaack's best men during the time of the Anarchist trouble. The outcome of the pumping process would be a matter of interest, but

THE POLICE REFUSE TO TALK.

No one was allowed to see Coughlin all day, not even an attorney who had been hired by his friends. The young man King, arrested on the strength of Woodruff's story was released this evening, the police believing him all right. The story to the effect that McGeehan was the man who called for and drove Cronin away the night of the murder was exploded to-night by a positive statement from a friend of Cronin's who saw the two in a buggy, that McGeehan is not the man.

SULLIVAN IN JAIL.

At a late hour this evening the police admit that P. O. Sullivan, the ice man, is under arrest, but they refuse to say where he is confined or whether any of the facts which seem to be in evidence against him had been secured.

LATER—It is learned that detective Coughlin was arrested on the charge of murder, not because of any new evidence that had been procured, but because his attorney was attempting to get him out of the hands of the police on a writ of habeas corpus.

MRS. LOMASNEY'S OPINION.

DETROIT, May 27th.—In reference to Dr. Cronin's report to the Clan-Na-Gael in 1888 on the misappropriation of the funds intended for the family of William McKay Lomasney, Mrs. Lomasney says: "It is a great surprise to me, and I am sorry that either myself or my unfortunate family should be mixed up in the death of Dr. Cronin. It would seem from reports that he was killed because he knew too much, and the murder was committed by his friends. No Irishman lifted his hand against him and the murder was paid for by British gold."

SHE KNEW SULLIVAN.

When asked if she knew any of the men who were charged with appropriation the money raised by the society for the benefit of herself and children, she said:

"I knew Sullivan in Chicago. He seemed a very nice man, but I do not know much about him. The other two mentioned are perfect strangers to me, and I never heard their names mentioned before. If any money has been raised for me by any society I never received a cent of it, but I do not believe there was. I have received aid, but it has always been from individuals and not from organizations."

Mrs. Lomasney reiterated her belief that her husband is not dead, but imprisoned in some English dungeon, with no chance to communicate with her.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

He is Banqueted by the Young Men's Democratic Club.

NEW YORK, May 27th.—The Young Men's Democratic Club of this city gave a banquet of welcome to be extended to ex-President Cleveland at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this evening. Nearly 500 of the leaders of the Democratic party were present.

Cheers were long and loud when the ex-President entered the banquet hall. He submitted to the handshaking of the many guests for an hour before taking his seat at the table.

Cleveland was dressed in sombre black. There was more of the glow of health in his face than at the time he retired from the Presidency. He appeared in the best of spirits.

All the factions of the Democracy were represented at the banquet—Tammany, County Democracy, officers of the Reform Club and of various other Democratic clubs in this city and Brooklyn.

The march into the banquet hall was led by President Arnold alone. He was followed by ex-President Cleveland, Governor Hill and Mayor Grant, in the order named, each escorted by a member of the club under whose auspices the banquet was given.

At the main table was the guest of the evening, on the right of the club President. The others in places of honor were Governor Hill, Mayor Grant, ex-Minister to England Phelps, W. L. Scott, C. F. Black, ex-Secretary Fairchild, ex-Governor Hoadley of Ohio, and P. A. Collins.

Around seven long tables, laid at right angles to the guests' tables, were gathered several hundred other banqueters. Before the guests took their seats Cleveland was tendered an impromptu ovation. When the dinner had been fairly started the orchestra began a rendition of selections of music, which continued at intervals during the banquet.

The principal feature of the evening was Grove Cleveland's response to the toast: "Our Guest." He spoke as follows:

Many incidents of my short residence in this good city have served to fill my cup of gratitude and to arouse my appreciation of kindness and consideration of those with whom I have made my home. Hospitality, for which the citizens of New York long have been distinguished, has outdone itself in my welcome, and yet I can truly say that none of these things will be more vividly or gratefully remembered than the opportunity offered me by this occasion to greet the political friends I see about me.

While I believe that no one is more susceptible than I of every personal kindness, and while I am sure no one values more his personal friendship, it certainly should cause no surprise when I say these things are not more cherished than my attachment and loyalty to the true Democratic faith, and my obligations to the cardinal principles of its party organization.

I have been honored by the party far beyond my deserts. No man can deserve its highest honors. After six years of public service I return to you, my party friends.

Six years have I stood as your representative in State and nation, and now I take my place again in the ranks, more convinced than ever that the cause of true Democracy is the cause of the people, their safeguard and their hope.

I come to you with no excuses or apologies, and with no confession of disloyalty. It is not given to man to meet all various and conflicting laws and views of party duty and policy which prevail in an organization in which individual opinion is so freely tolerated as in the Democratic party, and yet when they are honestly held and advocated they should provoke no bitterness or condemnation. But when they are dishonestly proclaimed, as were a covert pretext for personal resentment and disappointment, they should be met by the exposure and contempt which they deserve.

No man can lay down a trust which he has held in behalf of a generous and confiding people and feel that at all times that he has not in the least possible way the requirements of his trust, but he is not derelict of duty if he has conscientiously devoted his efforts and his judgment to the people's services.

I have deliberately placed in close connection my loyalty to Democratic principle and my devotion to the interests of the pepole, for in my view they belonged together and should mean the same thing. But in this day of partisan feeling and attachment it is well for us to pause and recall the truth that the only justification for the existence of any party is the claim that its principle and performance to its object and purposes are the promotion of public good and the advancement of the welfare and prosperity of the entire country.

There never was a party platform or declaration of principles which did not profess these things, and make them foundations of party creed, and make any body of men who should openly proclaim they were associated together for the express purpose of gaining supremacy in Government, with a sentiment of distributing the offices and spoils of victory among its associates, would be treated with ridicule and scorn.

Thus are we brought face to face with the proposition that parties should no more than individuals be untruthful and dishonest. Of course in the supremacy of the party there are advantages to its members, and this is not amiss, but when high party aims and professions are lost sight of or abandoned, and the benefit of office-holding and personal self are all that remain to inspire party activity, not only is the confidence of those relied on for patriotic support forfeited, but the elements of cohesion and of effective and lasting political strength are gone.

Honest differences of opinion that must always exist upon questions of principle and public policy, should furnish abundant occasion for the existence of parties, and point out their field of usefulness. When we seek for the cause of the perpetuity of the Democratic party and its survival through every crisis and energy and in the face of all opposition, we find, in fact, that its corner-stone is laid in devotion to the rights of the people and sympathy with all things which tend to the advancement of their welfare and happiness. Though heresy may sometimes have crept into its organization, true Democracy honestly advocates a national brotherhood, to the end that all our fellow-countrymen may aid in the achievement of the grand destiny which awaits us as a nation, and it condemns that pretext of liberality and harmony, which, when a partisan advantage is to be gained, gives way for inflammatory appeals to sectional hate and passion.

It does not favor multiplication of offices and salary merely to make partisans, nor use the promise and bestowal of place for the purpose of stifling the press and bribing the people. It seems to lighten the burden of life in every home, and to take from citizens for the cost of government the lowest possible tribute.

We know we have espoused the cause of right and justice; we know we have not permitted our duty to our country to wait with false promises and pretense; we know we have not corrupted nor betrayed the poor with the money of the rich.

Who shall say that these things promise no reward, and that the triumph shall not be followed by the enlightened judgment and sober second thought of our countrymen? There are to-day weak, weary and despondent members of true Democracy, and there should be none. Thoughtful attention to political topics is thoroughly aroused. Events are day by day leading men to review reasons for their party affiliations, and supporters of principles we profess are constantly recruited by intelligent, young and sturdy adherents. Let us deserve their confidence, and, shunning all ignoble practices, let us remain steadfast to the Democratic faith and to the cause of our country. If we are true and loyal to these, the day of our triumph will surely and quickly come, and our victory shall be fairly and nobly won through the invincible spirit of true Democracy.

The other speakers were Governor Hill, who responded to the toast: "The Democracy of the State of New York;" John C. Breckenridge, Frederick Coudert, and ex-Governor Hoadley.

SIOUX RESERVATION.

One-half of It May be Thrown Open for Settlement.

PIERRE (D. T.), May 27th.—Eleven million acres of land to be thrown open to settlement under the homestead law—that, in a nutshell, is what the Sioux Commission, which will leave Chicago to-morrow, is expected to accomplish, if, as is confidently expected, the Commission secures the signatures of two-thirds of the adult Indians on the Sioux Reservation. This enormous tract of land will be opened within three or four months, and a rush of settlers may be looked for that will make the Oklahoma craze seem a tame and insignificant affair.

Eleven million acres is an empire in extent, yet is only one-half of the great Sioux Reservation, which contains 22,040,043 acres. The southern boundary of the reservation is the Niobrara river in Nebraska, its eastern the Missouri and its northern the Cannon Ball, which flows a few miles south of Bismarck, D. T., and its western the 103d meridian, which runs through the Black Hills.

The reservation may be said in general terms to embrace an area averaging 325 miles in length by 140 in width. A barrier to civilization, the great reservation stands between the people of the East and one of the richest mining sections of the country. Save here and there at the agencies no white men are seen on the land, unless it be some traveler on his way to the Black Hills. One may travel for days and never see an Indian, for the buffalo are gone and little game is left to attract the red man from his tepe.

Murderers Arrested.

DENVER, May 27th.—A special dispatch from Childers, Tex., says: "Harry Gwin and C. J. Watson, alias Barlow Wilson, were arrested Friday evening at the Mattador ranch for the murder of George W. Richardson, Superintendent of the San Pedro Coal and Coke Company at Carthage, N. M. The murder was committed on May 15th, while Richardson was attempting to prevent the robbery of the company's office. After killing Richardson the miscreants robbed the office of $84,000 and escaped. When arrested the prisoners had $3,750 in their possession, which they claim they had won at gambling."

Large Wheat Crop in Sonora—Sale of Important Coal Fields.

GUAYMAS (Mex.), May 27th.—The Sonora wheat crop is now being harvested. It is immense, for the first time in the history of Mexico there will be a great surplus which will commence being exported to Liverpool via New Orleans in a few days. The State Legislature in order to encourage exportation and assist the farmer in the heavy expenses attending transportation to Sonora by stations offers a premium of one dollar per ton.

Another sea monster of the ray species was caught yesterday. It is much larger than the one reported on Friday. It was visited at Marieta beach by large crowds of people.

Messrs. Watson & Dwyer, representing a Chicago syndicate, have been here and bought the Barranca coal fields, situated ninety miles east of Sonora, on the railway southeast of Hermosillo, paying $100,000 cash and $100,000 stock. The mines are said to be very valuable and are surrounded by a rich mineral district, gold, silver and other ores abounding. The same syndicate intends building a railway from Morena Station, passing through a very fertile agricultural country and numerous cattle ranches. Engineers to survey the route will arrive within two weeks, the work to begin immediately.

A Duke on His Muscle.

Simms complains that while engaged in reporting a review of the fire brigade at Whitehall on Saturday there was a rush by the crowd and he was unavoidably pushed against the Duke of Cambridge. The Duke caught him by the throat and tore his collar. Then Robinson took hold of him and hustled him about and accused him of being drunk.

It Is a Gem.

[The Citrograph.]

The Sacramento RECORD-UNION, after having for long years only issued a paper six days in the week, at last comes out with a Sunday edition. Our opinion is that it is a mistake, but have not the slightest idea that the RECORD-UNION cares a picayune for our opinion, good or bad. The Sunday issue is an exceedingly good one, fresh, bright, clean and sparkling; but all men should have a chance for a periodical rest, and our contemporary should give their employes a chance to change their occupation once a week. Yet we have this to say, that this Sunday edition is a gem, ably edited, full of fresh, newsy subjects, and all handled in a manner that will make it exceedingly popular. We certainly wish the new venture—now that it has been made—every success that the projectors could wish.

The Citrograph, published at Redlands, Cal., is an excellent journal, and we do value its good opinion, therefore we will inform our friend Craig that each employe of this paper has a full day of 24 hours off each week.

To-day's Weather Indications.

California, Oregon and Washington — Warm; fair; variable winds.

THE LOTTERY EVIL.

There is an "outburst of indignation," says the Chicago Herald, in that city over the recent disclosures made there of the enormity of the lottery evil. That paper says:

> The expose of the extent of this evil reveals a state of things of a most alarming nature. The vice reaches far into the laboring classes, and among others who cannot afford the expense. It is constantly increasing despite its ruinous effects and its illegal character. * * * Money paid for a lottery ticket is just as much thrown away as if it were burned in the grate; there is no possible show; it is of the grade of the thimble-rigging, three-card monte, and the operations of the bunko and the confidence man. There is no possible show of winning; it is a "dead open and shut" for the dealer, and is just as much of a robbery as if filched from the pocket or handed over after a blow from a sand-bag.

It is no worse in Chicago than it is in San Francisco and in this city. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars are annually carted out of the State to the benefit of the lottery swindle without protest or attempt to enforce the law. The Herald charges at length that the officials and police of its city are in collusion with the lottery criminals, for they do not check that which they can easily stop if they wish to. The officials in California may or may not be in partnership with the lottery gamblers, but that they make no effort to punish the offenders is certainly true. At rare intervals there is an arrest made in San Francisco and the offender is fined, only to resume his nefarious business. In Sacramento not only is an arrest never made, but there is no concealment of the crime. The lottery joints are wide open in this city, if not in San Francisco, and the tickets openly sold in contemptuous violation of the law. Our newspapers flaunt the advertisements of these gambling schemes weekly in the faces of their readers in defiance of the law making it a crime to advertise a lottery in any form whatever, and peddlers of lottery tickets tramp from house to house. It will not do to say, "The people will gamble," etc., but if for the sake of argument it be admitted, it is no sort of excuse whatever for the failure of officials to do their duty, or at least to make an effort to do so. They would not be resisted if they made the attempt, and there is therefore not even the excuse to be interposed for them that they have endeavored to enforce the law and have not been supported by public sentiment. Since the press of Chicago has determined to compel the officials of that city to enforce the law and punish the lottery agents and advertisers, there is some hope that the example may be followed in this State, and the test fairly made whether or not the lottery men of the South have a license from the prosecuting officers, Grand Juries and police of California to violate our laws.

ASSUMING the recital of Miss Van Nostrand and her two associates to be correct, the arrest and incarceration of the three American women in France because of a quarrel with a dressmaker over a bill that was extortionate, was an outrage that demands explanation on the part of the French authorities. It may be a small thing in itself that three American women were arrested and locked up in a noisome dungeon many hours, refused bail and treated with indignity, at the whim of a petty official of a French town, though no unbailable crime was laid at their door, but if our citizens can travel in Europe without protection against such outrages, it is time this Government understood it. If everything that the French dressmaker charges against the three American women is true, there was no excuse for the harsh treatment they received. They ordered a dress made; that is, one of the party did. The purchaser refused to receive it on the ground that it was not as ordered. Thereupon the three women, because they were traveling together, were arrested for the offense of one and locked up in a dungeon, and, though released some hours later on appeal to our representative at the place, were kept under arrest with an officer at their hotel door, until they were compelled to pay the demand of the dressmaker, though the goods were never delivered. Of course, in our own country if one contracts a debt and attempts to leave the country with intent of avoiding payment, he may be arrested and held to answer to a judgment against him. But this case in France appears to have been of a different order, no civil judgment having been rendered or asked for, and only criminal process having been resorted to. Our people when abroad must obey the local laws, but there is no reason whatever why, in such a case as that detailed, there should be such harshness, and the use of criminal laws to compel one to respond to the exactions of a shop-keeper, who has not established her right to recover. It is said that the matter is to be brought to the attention of the State Department. Let us hope that it will be, for no matter who the parties are, or how trivial the case, it is well to let the powers of Europe understand that the American Government will contend for the rights of its citizens wherever they may be found, and be they rich or poor that it will manifest a lively interest in their welfare when it is antagonized by the processes of any foreign authority.

"HYPHENED" AMERICANISM.

It was with regret that we read the statement—assuming him to have been correctly reported—that President Harrison has said to a representative of "German-Americans" that they would not have cause to regret his action in appointing officials, and that if they would be patient they would be satisfied with his appointments. This was in response to the expression of a newspaper that it thought the Administration was forgetting the "German-Americans" in the distribution of the offices. If the reply of the President was intended to be evasive then it was not courageous. If it was intended to convey the idea that men would be selected for important positions because they were of German nationality, then it was un-American and dangerous doctrine. It makes no difference that former Administrations have acknowledged fealty to the Americanism that parts its hair in the middle; from this one we hope for repudiation of any clan or class distinctions. It is humiliating to the true American to know that there is maintained by any class of citizens a distinctive organization that relates to foreign nationality, nor should it be any less humiliating to the foreigner who has sincerely forsworn allegiance to princes and potentates, and become in good faith an American citizen. No President can afford to acknowledge that there are any class distinctions among citizens by reason of the accident of birth. It should make no sort of difference where a citizen is born so long as he is a good citizen and is fit for the place to which he has the right to aspire. The "Irish-American," the "German-American," the "French-American," and all such classifications are foreign to our scheme, offensive to the patriotic sense, and imply a divided allegiance, as well as give warrant to the suspicion that such distinctions are the surface indications of a clannish spirit that may not scruple to sacrifice the best interests of the country to a pride of nativity, or, worse, yield to seductive influences of promise and reward for votes delivered. It never was an encouraging sign, but the reverse, that any of our citizens of foreign birth have claimed preferment because of nativity. It does not speak of that lofty comprehension of the blessings of free government and the majesty of the sovereignty of the American citizen, that should give assurance that naturalization has been well bestowed. The proudest boast of the foreign born who becomes one of us should be that he is an American citizen in every and all respects, as fully and completely as his neighbor who happened to be born to the soil. All distinctions in party nationalities should be completely dropped out of sight. The foreign-born citizen should deem it an imputation of insincerity to be addressed with a "hyphened" title of citizenship, and Presidents, and all other dispensers of patronage should make it a rule that applications for place on the ground that the candidate was born across the water, or on this side, should be deemed prima facie evidence of unfitness, because of lack of due appreciation of the dignity and majesty of citizenship.

PROF. VIRCHOW, the great anatomist, gives it as his opinion that Bishop was not alive when the post-mortem examination of his body was had. Of course his judgment is formed upon a meager statement of the case, but he is quite positive that the man was dead before the surgeon's knife was used. The whole story of the man being in a trance, is speculation. The physicians who performed the dissection must be presumed to have known what they were about. But that there was undue haste in holding the autopsy is true.

IN FOLSOM TOWN.

An Enjoyable and Financially Successful Strawberry Festival.

Some weeks ago it was announced in the local press and by small tickets in circulation (price 25 cents), that a floral and strawberry festival would be held at the Town Hall in Folsom on the 24th day of May. The profits, if any, were for the continuation of the Episcopal Sunday-School. Anticipating the extraordinary interest sure to be created upon such occasion, your correspondent invested 25 cents and found a seat in the hall early on the evening of the event. The expectant community, the impending feast, and the prospects of a financial success had been discussed in all their aspects. Finally, a score or more of married couples, a round dozen of buxom widows, and a goodly number of the young and fair beauties of the village, fell into line, and by their smiles and persuasive tongues, the Town Hall was crowded by persons bent on eating, drinking, dancing and jollity. Separate tables had been arranged in proper order for the sale of ice cream, strawberries, lemonade, cakes, pies, meats, etc. The hall was most tastefully decorated for the occasion. Green boughs, evergreen wreaths and a profusion of flowers were grouped in the most exquisite designs. Broad leaves twined into garlands, leaves and flowers transformed by the skillful fingers of the fair maidens of the town, presented a goodly array of festal ornamenture.

Beside the seers, secondary lights and neophytes there was a large representation from the outskirts. The ladies wore their sweetest smiles and displayed no little brilliancy in the matter of dress. Every effort was made to eclipse the festival of last year. Some of the male patrons made themselves miserable in swallow-tailed coats and "boiled" shirts, handsomely frilled on the bosoms and wristbands. The tables groaned under the weight of dainty dishes of chicken, turkey, cherry pie and "plum-duff." The grab-bag, carefully cared for by Mrs. I. F—, was the grandest of all the grabs of the evening, and was accepted as an innocent and mirthful swindle, customary on such occasions. No matter which way you turned to avoid the bagging, some friend with a keen eye to profit was certain to make you acquainted with the pretty, youthful and modest clerk in crinoline, and the result was that money was abstracted like magic from purse and pocket.

At 11 P. M. the floor was cleared, the musicians took their places, scraped their fiddles to the right pitch, drew three or four strains, and with one desperate "splurge" and a nod from the boss old and young "waded in," and the crinoline and coat-tails flew mighty high (the coat-tails, I mean), corns were trodden upon, and many dresses were seriously ripped. It is said that one man got so full of soda-water and lemonade that he went to a neighbor's pump to light his cigar.

Otherwise everything passed off harmoniously and much to the credit of those who took the lead in getting it up, and it proved a financial success as well.

The filly's dam is Phyllis by imported Admirable, and was bred on the Haggin farm, near this city, by John Mackey. Mr. Callendine paid for the filly the sum of $1,000 in cash and the trade of a black mare by Tilton's Altmont, brought out from Kentucky by Dr. Belton of Colusa. The mare's dam was by John Nelson. It is considered a very large price for a three-months-old filly.

Down by the Sea!

Beautiful El Carmelo!

In the heart of a pine forest!
Within the sound of ocean surf!
Within sight of the sea!
At home when you are abroad!

THESE ATTRACTIONS CAN RELATE TO no other than the new and beautiful EL CARMELO HOTEL, PACIFIC GROVE, which will be open to the public on JUNE 1st.

There is but one place in the world where stately pine forests stretch from mountain side to seaside, from summits commanding vast vistas to where the spray of the surf dashes against their trunks, and that place is the PACIFIC GROVE.

There is but one California; there is but one Pacific Grove in California, and there is but one EL CARMELO at the Pacific Grove. There is no other place where so much may be enjoyed of forest and sea, of ocean breezes, made fragrant by the balsam of pines, at so small a cost as at EL CARMELO HOTEL.

All the comforts of home, with all that is charming in a seaside, mountain and forest resort.

The opening of the Hotel is fixed for June 1st.

TERMS—$2 per day; $12 50 per week.

CITY BUSINESS.

CITIZENS ASK FOR A FOURTH OF JULY DONATION.

The Matter Deferred for a Week—Rickety Sidewalks and Streets in Need of Repair.

At the meeting of the City Board of Trustees yesterday, at which Mayor Gregory and Trustees McLaughlin and Wolf were present, E. H. Williams, Chief Engineer of the Water Works, reported that for the week ending May 26th 32,364,000 gallons of water had been pumped. The Holly pump was in operation 124 hours, and the Stevens 87 hours. This amount is the largest consumed in any one week this season.

D. Lubin, of the Finance Committee on the Citizens' Fourth of July Celebration Committee, addressed the Board, requesting that they make an appropriation to carry out the work. He thought it would require $3,000 to celebrate the day as the Executive Committee proposed, and trusted that the Board would appropriate at least $2,500, as they thought they could raise the other $500 by a canvass of the city.

W. S. Leake indorsed the remarks of Mr. Lubin, and stated that the general sentiment of business men was that the Trustees should furnish the funds.

T. W. Sheehan said that the celebration would certainly be a failure if the Board did not bear a greater part of the expense. It was a public affair, and he knew there would be no salvation for the celebration if the money would have to come from the business men of the city.

R. D. Stephens, R. B. Harmon, M. S. Hammer, P. H. Russell and L. B. Mohr spoke in the same strain, and were unanimous that the funds for the celebration should come from the City Treasury.

Mayor Gregory said that he knew the Trustees were all of the same opinion as the gentlemen who had spoken, but the city funds were rather short, and they did not see how such an amount could be donated. He thought a smaller sum could be furnished.

Trustees Wolf and McLaughlin were decidedly opposed to making such appropriations when there were outstanding bills that ought to be settled first. There were gas bills that ought to be paid.

The Mayor said he thought $2,000 could be safely donated without any doubt.

"You won't do it with my vote," said Trustee McLaughlin.

"Nor with mine," said Wolf.

Thus the matter stood, and the aspect was discouraging to the committee present.

The Mayor suggested that the committee call on the Board next Monday and renew their request. Possibly by that time the other members might see some way by which the appropriation could be made.

POLICEMEN'S SALARIES.

The Mayor read to the Board a complaint and summons in which police officer L. W. Farrell is plaintiff and the City of Sacramento defendant, the action being to obtain a judgment for the sum of $2,625 for work and labor done and services rendered; that the said claim for said sum of money has been duly assigned to plaintiff, and for costs of suit.

The Trustees will take cognizance of the summons and proceed at once to defend themselves.

Trustee Wolf moved that Grove L. Johnson be employed as special counsel to assist the City Attorney in the case, and it was so ordered. The Board will consult with Mr. Johnson as to what his fee will be in the premises.

POUNDMASTER RUMBLE'S GRUMBLE.

Poundmaster Rumble, who several days ago was suspended from office for neglect and refusal to obey an order of the Board, appeared and made a statement. He would swear on a stack of Bibles as high as the sky, that he never received a nickel from anyone for permitting cattle to run at large. He took the two horses of Mr. Muir (who made a complaint to the Board last Monday) because they were tied with ropes between 40 and 70 feet long. He refused to obey the order of the Board to give up the animals because he wanted to explain the matter to them beforehand.

Mr. Rumble was instructed to appear before the Board again on next Monday afternoon, when those who wish to make complaints can also do so.

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS THAT NEED REPAIRS.

Sanitary Inspector Starr informed the Board that T street, between Third and Fourth, was in a very bad condition. Stagnant water would stand in places on it all summer long, and the holes in it ought to be filled. The Street Commissioner will look into the matter.

Trustee Wolf reported that certain parts of P street, between Fifth and Sixth, were in a very poor condition. Water stands under the sidewalks, and the property owners have been notified several times to fill in under the walks with earth, and they have failed to do so.

It was ordered that these property owners be required to furnish bonds that they would do the work as soon as the earth can be obtained.

The sidewalk in front of the California House on Front street, between J and K, was reported to be in a very rickety condition. The street-crossing at Eighth and H streets was also reported to be in need of repairs. These matters were referred to the Street Commissioner.

A street lamp was ordered put in on Fifth street, between J and K.

A remonstrance was received against the construction of a drainage sewer in the alley between Twelfth and Thirteenth, J and K streets, the property owners deeming the old sewer good enough for the present. Trustee McLaughlin will attend to the matter.

It was ordered that the alley between I and J, Tenth and Eleventh streets, be improved by grading and graveling to the official grade. Seventh street, from K to L, was also ordered graded, etc.

L. C. Chandler complained to the Board that property-owners were encroaching too far with their fences upon the alley between P and Q, Sixth and Seventh streets. The Street Commissioner will look into the matter.

MEMORIAL DAY.

An invitation was received from W. H. Ennis, Secretary of the G. A. R. Committee on Memorial Day services, asking that the Board unite in paying a tribute of respect to the memory of the national dead on that day. The invitation was accepted.

LAST YEAR'S GAS BILLS.

Among the bills passed were two in favor of the Capital Gas Company. One amounted to $833 and the other to $945, and each was dated December 30, 1888. Trustee McLaughlin objected to their being paid on the ground that last year's bills should not be paid out of this year's money. The other two members opposed McLaughlin's views and the bills were ordered paid.

CONCERNING FIRE LIMITS.

The fire-limit ordinance, introduced a week ago by Senator Dray, was taken up and read a second time and passed. It provides for the extension of the present fire limits from Tenth to Twelfth streets, and from the alley between I and J to the alley between K and L.

Adjourned for the week.

Alexander Hamilton's Son.

The plat in the City Cemetery to which the remains of William Stevens Hamilton are to be moved will be 18x18 feet, instead of 10x10. The remains will be removed to the new grave to-day, and the latter will be decorated on Memorial Day.

Several citizens are to meet this afternoon to arrange for a foundation for the monument that General Schuyler Hamilton will supply bearing a fine medallion of the illustrious father of the dead soldier. Some very interesting reminiscences of the gallantry of Colonel Hamilton and his service to his country is in possession of this journal and will presently be published.

REGIMENTAL COLORS.

The Gift of the Ladies to the First Artillery Regiment.

Last evening, at Armory Hall, a stand of beautiful colors was presented to the First Artillery Regiment, by lady friends of the militia. The money with which the flags were purchased was raised by the ladies, who had them made in San Francisco. Both flags are of the finest silk, and they are certainly the work of experts.

One is the standard United States flag (the Stars and Stripes), on which is neatly embroidered the words, "First Artillery Regiment, N. G. C." The trimming is a beautiful gold-colored fringe. The body of the other color is a rich dark red, with the words, "California—First Artillery," lettered on it in gold thread. Like the other, the flag is bound by heavy golden fringe. Both colors are supported by fine gold-tipped staffs. Cords and tassels attached to the staffs complete the outfit.

The four city companies of the regiment turned out about 100 men in all. Miss Eva McKee, daughter of Major McKee, made the presentation speech, as follows:

Officers and men of the First Artillery Regiment—Ladies and Gentlemen: The friends, patrons and well-wishers of your meritorious organization have delegated to me the pleasing duty of presenting this regiment with a fitting emblem and token of their appreciation and esteem in a few informal words. The wives, daughters and lady friends of the regiment have long been waiting an opportunity to bestow upon you, collectively, some gift that shall reflect their approbation and the public favor and commendation of your individual worth as members of our National Guard. They feel that every recognition, however slight, of your gratuitous service made to the people and the State must, in a way, serve to quicken and encourage your enthusiasm for the performance of an almost thankless yet voluntary duty. The flag of the regiment, in action and at home, has ever been regarded by those who fought for it and under it with the warmest affection and devotion ever since the war with races began.

That such an object of pride should be worthy of human endeavor, and of the highest regard of those whose emblem it shall be, it must be true in construction, genuine in material, of good value, and fair to look upon.

Your friends and donors have wrought with loving hands a sheet of national colors, adapted in every way to your purposes, of the finest texture, and as a whole worthy of your pride, and no less worthy of them. It is a brave and handsome banner, one which the crack regiment of the Union might bear triumphantly as their standard from the Atlantic to our own far Western shore.

Let this ensign and these colors be the oriflamme of your future marching on to higher and nobler achievements—in the contest for the honors among other regiments of the guard, or even perhaps upon the field of battle. Treasure this insignia of your station in the militia and let no false movement of yours as soldiers mar the glory of its significance.

Time may pale the luster of its tints, rough usage impair the integrity of its surface, but let us hope that for many years to come these banners may find an honored place in the headquarters of the First Artillery, as well as in the hearts of the men who gallantly follow it to the front every time it is unfurled.

THE COLONEL'S REPLY.

At the conlusion of Miss McKee's remarks, Colonel Guthrie ordered the Color Guard to the front to receive the beautiful gift, and stepping forward said:

Ladies: As commanding officer of the First Artillery Regiment, permit me, on behalf of the command, to thank you for this beautiful stand of colors. You have been zealous and untiring in your efforts for the good of this regiment. At camp, and on all occasions when it has been our good fortune to be so situated that you could do so, your kindly influence has been manifested. At the public reception of both officers and men you—our wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts—have always been ready and willing to bestow on the command those kind offices that only can come from the hands of the ladies. I can only say that, should occasion ever require—and we know not "to-day the bringing forth of the morrow"—that this regiment should be called to the field of battle, these colors will be followed by brave, unflinching soldiers, and your kind efforts, coupled with the spirit of patriotism, made manifest in selecting these, will cause our brave boys to follow on and on in the wake of the flag of our common country, and victory only will be secured when the First Artillery boys are placed in line of engagement.

There was held afterwards a banquet, in which the officers and ladies present participated, and toasts, songs, etc., were in order.

IN THE TOILS.

Sundry Unfortunates Arraigned at the Police Court Yesterday.

At the Police Court yesterday morning the usual Monday assortment of erring humanity was presented.

George McCormack pleaded not guilty to the charge of stealing several revolvers from S. Loorya's store, on Second street. The evidence against the prisoner was sufficiently strong to warrant the Court in holding him in bonds of $1,500 on a charge of burglary.

Sam Versacko, an Italian, was charged with assault upon one of his countrymen. The evidence indicated that his blows fell in self-defense, and he was discharged.

Dan Daly was sent to jail for eighty days—and for sobriety's sake.

"Butch" Van Tine was up for disturbing the peace. Case continued one week.

John O'Keefe paid $2 50 in commemoration of his latest drunk.

George Lewis and William Mullen were charged with drunkenness, but were acquitted by the Court.

BURNED AND MANGLED.

TWO MOST SHOCKING ACCIDENTS ON YESTERDAY.

A Young Lady Burned by Blazing Coal Oil, and a Man Mangled by Cars.

About 3:45 P. M. yesterday a kerosene can exploded at 1012 Tenth street, in a house owned by F. E. Reichart, and occupied by Lewis Winters, and the building was soon in flames. The stove was in a room occupied by Misses Luzetta and Lily Kreeger, who reside at Galt, but who are temporarily sojourning in the city, while attending the Sacramento Business College. The young ladies were both badly burned by the escaping fluid, and Mrs. Lewis Winters was also badly injured.

An alarm of fire was sounded a few minutes after the catastrophe, and fire engines 1, 2 and 3, the Hook and Ladder Company and the hose carts promptly arrived upon the scene and commenced active work.

Meantime the injured ladies had been removed from the house to A. C. Tufts' drug-store, on the corner of Tenth and J streets, where a physician was summoned to administer temporarily in the alleviation of their sufferings. The Misses Kreeger were later removed to the State House, where they are now under medical attendance.

The fire started in a lower room in the rear of the building. It extended to the houses on either side, and that the fierce flames were subdued without greater damage than was done was due to the prompt and efficient service of the Fire Department.

The damage to the owners of the three buildings is reported as follows: F. E. Reichert, $1,000, insured in the Liverpool and London and Globe, Coleman & Co., agents; A. Scroggs, $500, insured in the same; John Bellmer, $1,000, insured in a company for which Carl Strobel is agent.

THE INJURED LADY'S STATEMENT.

To an intimate acquaintance who was permitted to call last evening, Zetta May Kreeger, the young lady so seriously burned, stated that she and her older sisters, Lillie and Lettie, were attending school in the city. After the day's recitations were over Lillie and Lettie went to the market for meat, and Zetta went directly to their rooms to prepare dinner. She lighted the fire in a coal-oil stove, placed thereon a kettle of water, and then donned a dress of light material. Soon afterward, in changing the griddles the skirt of the dress touched the flame, and in a second she was enveloped in a sheet of fire.

At this moment the sisters returned, and taking in the situation at a glance Lillie sprang through the open door to her sister's aid, at the same time slamming it shut to close Lettie out, the door someway fastening itself. Zetta ran to a tub of water on the porch, passing on her way a can of coal-oil, which caught fire from her burning dress and exploded. Not finding the relief sought for in the tub, she ran to the yard, where Lillie finally suceeded in smothering the flames by wrapping her in a sheet caught from a clothesline.

Both girls were seriously burned. Their mother was telegraphed for at once. Lillie's injuries are about the hands and face, while those of Zetta extend over the face, neck, arms and lower extremities. When seen last evening the pain, which had been excruciating, was somewhat allayed by the use of morphine and by her being kept in a bath-tub constantly immersed in warm water, the more thoroughly to exclude the air. While appreciating the dangerous character of her burns, Zetta cheerfully insists on her ability to weather it through to an early recovery.

At a late hour last night Miss Zetta, under the influence of anesthetics, was apparently suffering but little pain. Her condition, however, is considered very critical.

ANOTHER STORY.

There are other rumors about to the effect that the stove was one in which wood was used for fuel, and that the unfortunate young lady was in the act of pouring some coal-oil upon the wood to hasten the fire, when the can exploded.

BLOOD-CURDLING CALAMITY.

J. M. Wilson, a Switchman, Accidentally Killed by a Locomotive.

About 9 o'clock last evening a horrible accident happened at the Southern Pacific Company's yards at Sixth street, by which J. M. Wilson, a switchman, met a terrible death.

As engine No. 302 was backing cars upon the scales Wilson started to the shed to get his lantern. He went up the track towards the shed, but by the time he had walked about thirty yards the engine had caught up with him. He turned around and raised his foot to catch the step of the locomotive, when, in some manner, he lost his balance and fell across the rail. The big wheels of the engine were soon upon him and his body was cut in two. The wheels crossed his left leg and the body must have been twisted around so that the lower part of the abdomen and the right thigh were run over. Wilson died a few minutes after the catastrophe and the Coroner took charge of the remains.

The deceased was a native of Ireland, about 40 years old, and has been railroading in different parts of the State for some eighteen or twenty years. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The following Supreme Court opinions were filed yesterday in the office of Clerk Williams, of the Sacramento District:

Taylor (appellant) vs. North Star Gold Mining Company—An action was brought to set aside an assessment sale of mining stock. Judgment and order affirmed.

A. C. Hanson (respondent) vs. John Fricker—An action brought to establish a resulting trust. The property in controversy is a quarter interest in a mining claim situated in Butte county. Judgment and order affirmed.

Slightly Scorched.

At about 1:30 P. M. yesterday a fire occurred in the kitchen of the residence of J. J. Thompson, 1524 M street. The Fire Department responded promptly and the flames were soon extinguished. The fire had its origin in a wood-box behind the stove, but as there had been no fire in the stove during the day the cause of the blaze was a mystery. It was thought possible that matches had been accidentally dropped into the box and ignited by a predatory mouse. The damage was slight.

Lecture on Temperance.

Dr. James H. White, State Lecturer for the Good Templars, delivered an address at Good Templars' Hall last evening to a good-sized audience. It was the first time the doctor appeared before a Sacramento audience, but he was urged to remain and speak again this week. Mr. White has an original way of treating the subject of temperance, and this, combined with a finished style of oratory, gives a charm to the discussion of temperance themes seldom heard.

Serious Accident to Children.

Yesterday afternoon, at Waxon's ranch on the Sacramento river, two children of Mr. Garcia, the lessee of the place, fell from a high tree. One of them, a girl about six years of age, sustained a fracture of the right shoulder joint, and the other, a boy of about four years, received severe internal injuries. Both were brought to Sacramento for surgical treatment and taken to the residence of Mr. Williams at the corner of Eleventh and Q streets.

Yesterday's Weather.

The highest and lowest Signal Service temperature yesterday was 85° and 53°, with cloudy weather, and fresh to gentle southerly winds prevailing; barometer steady. The highest and lowest temperature for the same date last year was 76° and 49°, with clear weather and fresh southerly breezes prevailing.

CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Business Transacted at the Regular Monthly Meeting Last Night.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Education was held at the rooms of the Board last evening, President Todd in the chair. There were present: Superintendent Beard, Directors Skelton, Hopley, Tufts, Martin, Senatz and Chipman.

The bids for 300 desks intended for use in the city schools were opened. The bidders were H. S. Crocker & Co., the Bancroft Company, the Capital Furniture Company and the Minneapolis School Furniture Company. The matter was referred to the Committee on Furniture and Supplies, the committee to report to a special meeting of the Board to be held this evening.

Representatives of the bidders, who were present, were invited to meet the Board at the close of its session and explain the merits of their wares, of which samples were presented.

Mrs. T. H. Ralston of Placerville made application for the situation of music teacher in the city schools. Referred to the Committee on Course of Study.

W. H. Hamilton, the architect, submitted plans for additions to the high school and the primary school at Twenty-seventh and J streets. Consideration was postponed until the meeting this evening.

The Committee on Buildings and Repairs reported sundry repairs and repainting needed on different school buildings, with estimated cost of the same, aggregating $3,729. Laid over until this evening.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid: Teachers' and janitors salaries, $7,057 15; Tom Scott, $3 65; Daily Bee, $10; W. C. Graff, $56 46; S. W. Butler, $1 50; J. A. Lafferty, $6; Sacramento Lumber Company, $4 54; M. B. Steinburg, $5; Locke & Lavenson, $2 40; Friend & Terry Lumber Company, $10 21; H. Coates, $46 20; Protestant Orphan Asylum, $25; Day & Joy, $4; Adam Kinkele, $17 50; Telegraph Mill, $16 31; L. P. Gillman, $9 78; Capital Gas Company, $9 90.

The enrollment for the past month was as follows: High School, 132; Sacramento Grammar, 637; Capital Grammar, 417; Primary, 2,240; Night-school, 67; German, 255; French, 25.

On motion of Director Martin a vacation was declared on Thursday and Friday, the 30th and 31st instants.

The invitation of Miss Watson, Principal of the Sacramento Grammar School, asking the Board to attend the memorial exercises in that school to-morrow forenoon, was accepted.

It was moved that the night-school be continued for the month of June.

After the discussion of a number of topics of minor importance, the Board adjourned until this evening.

WAKING UP SLEEPY FOLSOM.

Twenty Carloads of Sheet Iron Being Made Into Water Pipe.

FOLSOM, May 27, 1889.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: The old railroad shops at Folsom, which have been for so many years deserted, present just now a most lively appearance. The buildings have been leased by Huntington, Hopkins & Co. of your city, who secured the contract for manufacturing the iron water pipe to be laid on the Orange Vale lands this season, and a large force of iron workers under the supervision of Brock & Taber are hard at work turning out pipe of all sizes from four-inch to twenty-six-inch diameter and in sections of about twenty feet. Twenty carloads of sheet iron are on the ground, and the manufactured pipe is being turned out as rapidly as possible. The trenches for the pipe are already dug, and the work of carrying the pipe over to Orange Vale commenced to-day. The contract calls for about ten miles of pipe, all to be delivered within sixty days. Next year the Orange Vale Company will lay as much more and then will have water everywhere on its large tract with a uniform pressure of 100 feet. With the proportions assumed by the Natoma Water Power Company's work and the Orange Vale enterprise, Folsom sees no reason why she should not speedily be on the road to prosperity.

F. E. W.

Fire Commissioners Last Evening.

At the meeting of the Fire Commissioners last evening an invitation from the G. A. R. Memorial Day Committee to participate in the observance of the day was accepted.

A communication was also read from the Sacramento Improvement Association, asking the Board to examine into the matter of providing a better fire-alarm system.

Mr. Comstock said that he and Chief O'Meara had recently visited Stockton to examine the "Close" fire alarm system of that place, and found that it gave complete satisfaction.

Mr. Weil moved that a fire-alarm box be sent to San Francisco for the purpose of ascertaining if it could be changed so as to adapt it to the new system. He further added that the present fire-alarm system was very unsatisfactory to the people.

The Board then adjourned after allowing a number of bills.

Agricultural District Directors.

The Governor yesterday appointed the following Directors of District Boards of Agriculture:

District No. 26, Sacramento county—John McFarland, for the term ending December 1, 1890, vice I. N. Holman; Oliver Plummer, for the term ending December 1, 1892, vice H. A. Messenger; Eugene J. Gregory, for the term ending December 1, 1889, vice A. C. Smith.

District No. 18, Inyo county—A. W. Eibeschutz, for the term ending December 1, 1890, vice William Walker, failed to qualify.

District No. 23, Contra Costa county—D. N. Sherbourne, J. E. Dunham, H. Raass, G. P. Loucks, J. H. Tennent, R. G. Dean, F. Sanford and R. C. Terry.

A Brace of Dope Fiends.

Yesterday afternoon officers Eldred and Snook arrested a couple of fellows in the Plaza who had in their possession a lot of stuff that had apparently been stolen. One of them became quite abusive to Eldred, but subsided after his head had made a sudden acquaintance with the ground. They gave the names of George Johnson and Frank Clark. They had implements in their pockets for injecting morphine into their systems.

Stylish and Public-Spirited.

The Directors of the Central Street Railway seem to have progressive ideas as to the manner of conducting that kind of enterprise. They have their drivers and conductors neatly uniformed, after the style of the employes of the cable cars at the Bay, and they have instructed them to carry letter-carriers free over the road.

Clear the Way

Without loss of time when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without drenching or weakening the blockaded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The fiat of experience, and of the medical fraternity, sanction the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

A fair trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum, or any affection caused by impure blood or low state of the system, will be sufficient to convince any one of the superior and curative powers of this medicine. Buy it of your druggist. One hundred doses $1.

More of the Arizona Robbers Arrested—Sudden Death at Lodi—Washington Territory.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS.

The Latest Events at the Bay City by Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27th.—This afternoon Charles R. Euler, a proprietor of dye works, whose wife recently obtained a divorce from him on account of cruelty, attempted to board the narrow gauge train while in motion in Alameda. He fell, and the train passed over both his legs which were so badly shattered that both were amputated. He is not expected to live.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Louise Hagenow, who was twice tried for the murder of a woman by a criminal operation, each time the jury being unable to agree, has been released on $20,000 bail.

HAGER'S ACCOUNTS.

Collector Phelps stated to-day that he had heard a report that ex-Collector Hager was short $8,000 in his accounts, but he has no faith in the charges. He has not thoroughly investigated the matter, but had communicated with the Department at Washington on the subject. The Collector was burdened with the duty of making all repairs to the public building, and he thinks that if there is any mistakes in the account it has been done in charging a sum to one account when it should have been charged to another.

SHE WANTS A DIVORCE.

Lillie E. Wright, who was shot four times by her husband last Thursday, has commenced an action for a divorce on the ground of cruelty. In the complaint she alleges only two acts, one in writing her a letter in which he threated suicide, which caused her sudden illness, and the other in shooting four leaden bullets into her body.

WILLS PROBATED.

The will of Charles Casassa, who died on the 7th instant, has been filed for probate. The deceased left real estate worth $57,000. He bequeathed $1 to his son and left the balance to his widow and six children, share and share alike.

The will of Patrick McGonigle, who died in August, 1888, has also been filed. He left real estate worth $3,000 to his nine children in equal shares.

CONVICTED FOR DEFENDING HIS MOTHER.

Lito Farrington, 16 years of age, was sentenced by Judge Sullivan to-day to sixty days in the House of Correction for firing a charge of bird-shot into the person of Evan McClusky on San Jose avenue, on the 28th of last November. It appears that a difficulty occurred between them, when McClusky applied a vile epithet to the name of young Farrington's mother, which the latter resented in the manner stated.

HEAVIER GUNS.

The revenue cutter Rush will go to Mare Island to get three new guns for her northern cruise before she sails. She will then have seven cannon available in case of necessity. The Bear will take on a six-inch rifle before she goes north.

FAULTY CHARTS.

Captain Bennett, of the bark Lizzie Williams, which was lost on the coast of Alaska, on April 22d, says that the charts of Trigidak Islands, upon which the Lizzie Williams was lost, are but a delusion and a snare. They were prepared by the Russian Government before the United States took possession of the Territory. Twenty miles off shore from the islands, where the chart says there from 50 to 55 fathoms of water, he found reefs over which breakers broke to an enormous hight.

AN OCEAN MURDER.

In the United States District Court to-day the trial of F. W. Rugg, for manslaughter, was commenced. The prisoner was first mate of the American bark Newsboy, and, during a recent voyage, shot and killed Anerew Paulsen, the steward of the vessel. According to the story of the witnesses, Paulsen had struck the mate twice, and, as he advanced to strike him a third time, Rugg drew a revolver and fired, the bullet striking Paulsen in the right side, and inflicting a wound from which he died in a few hours.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY.

Evidence Sufficient to Convict the Arrested Arizona Robbers.

TUCSON (Ariz.), May 27th.—The officers are getting the identity of the Paymaster Wham robbers narrowed down close now. Four more men have been arrested, making six in all. Those arrested last are William Webb, a son Gilbert Webb, living at Pima. Lyman Follett and Ed. Follett, both cattlemen in the same vicinity, and Dan Rodgers, a cowboy. The arrests were made by Deputy Marshal Dunavan assisted by the military authorities. Lyman Follett was arrested Thursday about seven miles from the scene of the robbery. He was riding alone in the mountains when taken. One of his middle fingers is gone, and the wound shows it was shot off about the time the robbery occurred. This is considered the strongest evidence that the officers have. They have been on the right track from the start. It corroborates the negro woman's story about the man shaking blood from his hand while his companion was handling the papers. Will. Webb and Ed. Follett were arrested Friday, in Gila valley, near Thomas, at separate places, and Dan Rodgers was arrested Saturday. The evidence against these men is said to be strong, sufficiently abundant to hold them at a preliminary examination, and to secure their final conviction.

EIGHT INCENDIARY FIRES.

Loyal Ladies of Santa Rosa Contributing Flowers for Memorial Day.

SANTA ROSA, May 27th.—Two more incendiary attempts were made Saturday night, but both were discovered and extinguished without the aid of the fire department. This makes eight incendiary fires started within the last ten days. The total damage is less than $1,500, although over $500,000 worth of property was threatened with immediate destruction. Three tramps are now in jail on a charge of arson and more arrests are likely to soon follow. No motive is assigned except revenge for imprisonment in the jail on charges of vagrancy.

The ladies of this city, at the request of the G. A. R. Post of Virginia City, Nev., will make to-morrow a large shipment of flowers, to be used in decorating the graves of soldiers at Virginia City on Memorial Day.

ARIZONA ROBBERS.

Two More of them Arrested Near Willcox—Other Crimes Charged.

WILLCOX (A. T.), May 27th.—Thomas Lamb was arrested to-day by the Deputy Marshal at Pima, a village on the San Pedro, for being in the Wham robbery. The detectives and Deputy Marshals are earnestly at work on the ground, and besides making numerous arrests are gathering quantities of damaging evidence against the men arrested. Of those previously arrested, Cunningham and the Follett brothers are also charged with an attempt to murder two soldiers on the San Carlos Reservation in February, 1888. At the time it was generally supposed to have been Indians, but it has since been found out to be white men. With the above-named men three others are implicated from the same vicinity, and for whom warrants have been issued.

LOONEY SHOOTS RIDDLE.

Murder of a Wealthy Farmer in a Dispute About Land.

BIGGS, May 27th.—W. S. Riddle, a rich farmer on the adobe, over a disputed strip of land between Looney and Riddle, was shot through the body this morning about 7 o'clock with a Winchester rifle by Ed Looney. The parties met near Butte creek, nine miles west of town, on the disputed ground, and Riddle was shot while sitting in his buggy. Looney came to town and reported what he had done. A Justice and a jury went to the scene and brought the body to town, where an autopsy was held, showing that he was shot through the heart and liver.

LATER—Riddle and Looney owned adjoined ranches. Riddle believed Looney used a strip of his land and forbade him removing the hay that Looney had cut on it. This morning Looney and his brother loaded the hay, and, when gone about three hundred yards, Riddle drove up rapidly in a buggy with a gun in his hand and ordered them to unload, or he would shoot. Looney also had a rifle and slid off the load on the opposite side, and as Riddle drove around toward him fired three or four times quickly and Riddle fell from his buggy, the team running away. Both the Looneys immediately left without touching the body and Ed came to town, surrendered to the Sheriff and told a story substantially as above.

Incendiary Fires at Tacoma.

TACOMA (W. T.), May 27th.—A laborer named Morris Kidney was killed this morning by a caving bank, under which excavations were being made for a new mill in the First Ward.

The city is infested with incendiaries. The residences of three prominent citizens have been set on fire within the last two days, Dr. Miller's house being burned to the ground on Sunday morning. A close watch is being kept on several suspicious characters in town.

Elegant Bridle.

SPOKANE FALLS (W. T.), May 27th.—The eighth bank—the second savings—opened here this morning. H. L. Cutter is President, and J. L. Preckett, Cashier.

The trappings purchased by the city for the horse Spokane are very handsome. Over $200 worth of silver was used in ornamenting the bridle trappings, and it is said to be the handsomest ever manufactured in America.

Died in His Chair.

LODI, May 27th.—Dr. W. D. Haum, a resident dentist, expired suddenly at one o'clock this afternoon while sitting in a chair in his parlor. Although ailing since Friday he had been able to be around and nothing serious was apprehended. The immediate cause was attributed to heart disease.

Dutch Flat Items.

DUTCH FLAT, May 27th.—The weather has been very warm here during the last three days, the thermometer attaining as high as 70°. The United States Debris Commission arrived here to-day, and its members are being shown about the old hydraulic mines by John Spaulding and others.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning masked men forced their way into the jail at Huron, Mich., and took a mulatto named Martin out and hung him from the Seventh-street bridge, where the body still hangs. She has been in a precarious condition since and is not expected to live.

The sending of the British flagship Surprise with orders to cruise in Behring Sea has caused quite a stir in official circles at Washington. The Treasury Department has time and again called the attention of the Government to the fact that ships flying the English flag are engaged in illicit sealing in Behring Sea. In most cases the vessels are well armed, and our revenue cutters, which carry only howitzers, are no match for them.

The above to take effect on July 1, 1889. This is to be signed by all contractors or it will not go into effect, thereby releasing those who have signed."

A well-dressed man named Pratt walked down to the beach at Santa Monica at 4 P. M. Sunday, threw off his hat, coat and shoes, and deliberately walked into the surf and out into the water until beyond his depth. He sank at once, and there being a southerly drift, the body had not been recovered at last accounts. It is said he went to the watering place last night suffering from the effects of liquor, and the suicide is attributed to this cause. No further particulars as to his identity are obtainable.

Success Already Assured.

[Vaca Valley Enterprise.]

The first issue of the SUNDAY UNION has reached our exchange table. The terrors of a Sunday morning in Sacramento can no longer deter the good people of that town from getting up before breakfast on account of not having anything with which to while away the tedium of that morning in the Capital City. Compared with the San Francisco Sunday papers, the RECORD-UNION seems small, but a reading of the matter contained therein speaks well for the editorial management. It is replete in every detail, even to telegrams, and it does not require a wading through pages of slush to find the news. Its success is already assured.

Attended His Own Funeral.

SCRANTON (Pa.), May 27th.—The friends of James White assembled this afternoon to attend his funeral, the body having been shipped from Cleveland, Ohio. During the proceedings White himself walked in. The coffin lid was opened and the discovery made that the body of a stranger had been forwarded.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

A Warm Discussion Over the Work o the Publication Board.

NEW YORK, May 27th.—The Presbyterian Assembly resumed its legislation to-day. The Committee on Publications and Sunday-school Work submitted a report containing reflections on the Publication Board, which occasioned a warm discussion. The committee found that the Publication Board should exercise greater care in the supervision of the business department, the implication being that it was not conducted economically. Judge Robert N. Wilson of the Board at once threatened to resign. He said the Board was supposed to be an eel, which was getting used to being skinned and was good only when dead. To this other members retorted the Board had got in a groove and a change was necessary. Extravagance was also openly charged, and the discussion was intensified by a comparison of the work of the Board with that of the Publication Boards of other denominations. Finally it was decided to instruct a committee of five to investigate; also, to confer with the Board of Publication and report to the next Assembly.

Rev. Dr. Hayes, Chairman of the Committee on Temperance, presented a report in which was embodied a resolution expressing sympathy with the movement in progress for the complete suppression of the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

Rev. J. Logan Sample, of Dakota, offered the following substitute: "That while not indorsing any political party, we desire to express our heartfelt sympathy with the widespread movement in favor of prohibition, and extend to its advocates a hearty God speed."

Dr. Howard Crosby opposed the substitute, and said: "There are two principles adopted by Christians in this country on temperance questions. One is prohibition and the other high-license. It would be a great mistake for the Presbyterian Church to determine which is the best method for its purpose. Thd prohibitionists are a political party, and we have no right to pledge our adherence to any body."

Dr. Sample said he advocated prohibition because it was scriptural, and he considered it a sad day for the temperance cause when a large body like this Assembly could not bid it God speed.

Dr. Crosby asked: "What constitutional right has Dr. Sample to say that constitutional prohibition is the only thing that will conquer the saloon? I say it would result in free rum. Both prohibition and high license are political questions, and we have no right to ally ourselves to either side. Let us talk it down and condemn, but don't let us take either side."

By a vote of 210 to 105, the substitute was laid on the table. The original resolution, which read as follows, was adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily reiterate the deliverance of former Assemblies upon this whole subject, and express our warm sympathy with the widespread popular movement now in progress in favor of the complete suppression of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and we bid all wise and proper methods to secure this issue a hearty God-speed.

"THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS."

"The annual consumption of this favourite beverage, which, it is stated, now exceeds twelve million bottles, affords a striking proof of the widespread demand which exists for table water of absolute purity, and it is satisfactory to know that wherever one travels, in either hemisphere, it is to be met with; it is ubiquitous, and should now be known as the cosmopolitan table water—'Quod ab omnibus, quod ubique.'"—BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL, Aug. 25, 1888.

A MATTER OF CHOICE.

Dana, of the New York Sun, was asked whether port wine did not bring on the gout. He replied that he thought it did, but that the man who would not prefer to suffer a few twinges of the gout rather than give up his port wine wasn't a man after his heart.

Many things like this are a matter of choice, and we really believe that we are justified in saying that those who will not, in the face of the testimony which we can offer, try ATHLOPHOROS when they have Neuralgia or Rheumatism, really choose to keep the rheumatism rather than alter their opinions.

Ath-lo-pho-ros, $1.00 per Bottle, at all Drug Stores.

It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point.
